

Dr Paul Davies

Consultant Clinical Psychologist
DClinPsy, MSc, PGCert, BA, C. Psychol
Chartered Clinical Psychologist

Email: paul:@npsych-rehab.com

BPS: 707518

HCPC registered: PYL040053

Academic History

University of Glasgow: 2024–Present

Qualification in Clinical Neuropsychology: Knowledge Component completed.

Canterbury Christ Church University: 2018–2021 Doctorate in Clinical Psychology

University College London: 2017–2018 PGCert Low Intensity CBT Interventions

University College London/Birkbeck: 2010–2011 MSc Cognitive Neuroscience

University of Otago, New Zealand: 2008–2009, Psychology conversion degree

University of Otago, New Zealand: 1999–2002, BA Anthropology and Religion

Areas of Expertise

Clinical assessment & report writing
(neuropsychological assessment)

Mental capacity assessments Individual and group CBT, ACT and systemic informed approaches
Clinical supervision

Clinical research and audit

Cognitive rehabilitation

Family support and education Service development and clinical leadership
Inter-disciplinary teamwork & management
Teaching and training

Employment History

Oct 2026- Present NPsych Ltd, Consultant Clinical Psychologist

Specialist neuropsychological assessment and consultation, cognitive rehabilitation, psychological and emotional therapeutic interventions, capacity assessments delivered within community settings.

Aug 2025- Present British Home, Consultant Clinical Psychologist

Establishment of a neuropsychology service within a neurodisability service for adults with complex acquired and progressive neurological conditions.

Neuropsychological assessment, cognitive rehabilitation, psychological and behavioural intervention, mental capacity assessment, alongside clinical leadership, supervision and staff teaching and training.

May 2023- Present Richmond Community Neurorehabilitation Service Highly Specialist Clinical Psychologist

Highly Specialist Clinical Psychologist within a multidisciplinary community neurorehabilitation service, with a particular focus on people recovering from stroke. Specialist cognitive and psychological assessment, formulation and intervention. Work includes cognitive rehabilitation, psychological therapy, family support, multidisciplinary consultation, service development, teaching and training.

Jul 2023- Aug 2025 High View Care Services, Principal Clinical Psychologist

Neuropsychological assessment, cognitive rehabilitation, behavioural and psychological formulation and intervention within a specialist community-based slow-stream brain injury rehabilitation service. Clinical leadership, supervision of Assistant Psychologists and multidisciplinary consultation.

Aug 2022- May 2023 Blackheath Brain Injury Rehabilitation Unit

Principal Clinical Psychologist

Specialist neuropsychological assessment and rehabilitation for adults with complex acquired brain injury. Cognitive rehabilitation, Positive Behaviour Support, family work, MDT consultation, staff training and supervision.

Oct 2021- Aug 2022 Royal Hospital for Neuro-disability, Clinical Psychologist

Neuropsychological assessment, psychological and behavioural formulation and intervention for adults with severe acquired brain injury and complex neurological conditions. Family support, Positive Behaviour Support, staff consultation and supervision.

Sep 2018 – Sep 2021 Canterbury Christ Church University

Completed doctoral clinical psychology training across specialist neurodisability, adult mental health, CAMHS, learning disability and community services. Included neuropsychological assessment, cognitive rehabilitation, psychological intervention, behavioural formulation and family work

Sep 2016- 2017 South London and Maudsley NHS Foundation Trust Service

Contributed to the development and delivery of a specialist psychological group service for people living with Functional Neurological Disorder.

Feb 2014- 2016 Lishman Brain Injury Unit, South London and Maudsley NHS Foundation Trust

Worked within specialist acquired brain injury services across inpatient and outpatient settings. Undertook neuropsychological assessment and contributed to cognitive rehabilitation and psychological intervention for adults with complex acquired brain injury, alongside multidisciplinary working, clinical audit and service development.

Apr 2013- Feb 2014 University College Hospital London

Worked within a specialist paediatric service supporting children and young people with acquired brain injury and long-term health conditions. Neuropsychological assessment and intervention under clinical supervision.

Selected Conference Presentations

International Functional Neurological Disorder Conference, Edinburgh, 2017
Presentation of the FiND specialist FND group intervention.

International Brain Injury Congress, Netherlands, 2016

Presentation of research relating to validation of the Rivermead Post-Concussion Symptoms Questionnaire.

